Hi {firstname}, quick question....

If you could get paid just for having a FREE app on your phone would it be worth 2 mins?

If yes, that is all it takes to set this up, 2 mins and you can get paid every month...

I know you are probably thinking what is the catch, well yes there is a catch 😊...

The app is interested in anonymous location data, meaning location data without any personal info.

Location data is very valuable and most apps kind of have to sneak on how they get this data from you.

Example, have you ever wondered why does this game or photo editor need my location access?

Well instead of giving up that info for FREE now you can get paid on it every month.

Hi {firstname}, happy {day of the week}...

A few days ago, I asked you

"If you could get paid just for having a FREE app on your phone would it be worth 2 mins?"

Well, it actually, takes less than that... and just to confirm, the app is monetizing your location data anonymously.

This is done in the background even if you never open the app, you can still earn every day.

Plus, there are ways to earn even more by doing surveys and sharing app with friends (this is optional, but gives you more moola)

Email #6

Hey {firstname}, happy {day of the week}!

So, I had a user ask for more details about what information is the app tracking.

App does not track personal info, it ONLY tracks location data anonymously.

Also please note this info is clearly outlined in the terms and app had to go through an extensive review from both Google & Apple to get approval to make it on the app store.

Here is a video by the founder of the company explaining in detail how the app works and what it is tracking.

Hey {firstname}, happy {day of the week}, hope you are doing well today!

Yes you can really get paid for taking surveys...

As you know by now the Tapestri app is Free to install and you can earn money every day just by having the app active on your phone.

You do not even have to open up the app at all to earn... Pretty cool right?

Well you can also earn more for taking surveys, this is not required, it is totally optional and what is so powerful about Tapestri surveys is it pays you way more than most other surveys that you can take online.

Why because the app knows your location so the survey companies are willing to pay more!

App does not track personal info, it ONLY tracks location data anonymously.

Email #8

{firstname} are you ready to take Tapestri on a spin?

Really the risk is only like 1 min of your time to download and install...

On the upside you can earn everyday just for having the app on your phone even if you never open it up again.

You also earn $1 every month for any one that you share the app with using your unique link.

Example share with 10 friends earn $10 per month on top of the earning from your app (5-$25 per month)

Now we also have an optional affiliate program where you can earn more from all of your people that share with their people.

Example you shared with 10 people that shared with 10 people each

So, in this case you make $10/mth + $100/mth = $110/mth on top of your earnings from your app.

In fact in our affiliate program you are not required to have the app your self so if you are in a country where the app is not yet available you can still get paid for sharing the app with people that can install it.

Here is a quick video explaining how that works!

Again, the app does not track personal info, it ONLY tracks location data anonymously.
